DYING MAN NARRATED VARYING TALES

Alfred Kennedy, Messenger, 21 Years Old, Mortally Wounded, Taken to Receiving Hospital at Early Hour This Morning.

Police Inclined to Think Him Safe Cracker but Sheriff Believes He Was Shot While in Home of Thomas Dolan.

While Captain of Detectives Peterson announces that he believes Alfred Kennedy, a San Francisco messenger 21 years of age, who died today at the Receiving Hospital was the partner of Henry Leither, alias Harry Lenter, in the cracking of the Fruitvale Lumber Company's safe at midnight Saturday, Sheriff Frank Barnett declares otherwise and Detective McMorley and other officers from the City prison are searching high and low for Thomas Dolan or 615 Sixth street, who, with his wife, took Kennedy to the Receiving Hospital at 3 o'clock Sunday morning.

The Dolans and Kennedy, too, said the wound was sustained from a stranger's pistol, who mistook Kennedy for a footpad at Fourth and Jefferson streets.

The police and the sheriff have adopted another theory and declare that Kennedy was not shot by a mysterious stranger, but think he was shot by either Dolan or his wife in the Sixth street house, so consequently are searching for Mr. and Mrs. Dolan, who left their home yesterday without any intimation where they were going and have not returned, for the police have kept a strict watch on the place and no trace of the couple has been discovered.

Man Is Dying.
Kennedy passed away at the hospital on Franklin street with his heart broken mother weeping over his bed. She was brought to her son's death bed yesterday afternoon by a message from Steward Harry Borchert after Dolan failed to bring the woman or got word to her as he promised to do. This is another strong suspicion.

Miss Corinne Barry, Beautiful Heroine of College Romance, Will Become Bride of a Berkeley Man

WAS MARRIED TO BULKLEY YEARS. AGO

Has Since Retained Her Maiden Name—Tried to Put Her Mother in an Asylum.

MARRIAGE LICENSE.
Daniel J. O'Connor, 27, and Corinne Barry, 25, both of Berkeley.

This marriage license was issued today to Daniel J. O'Connor and Miss Corinne Barry, both of Berkeley. Miss Corinne Barry was the heroine of a romance at the close of her college career in Berkeley about three years ago, which resulted in the arrest of Lewis H. Bulkley, one of the most prominent senior college men and a member of a very prominent family of Southern California.

Married Bulkley.
Bulkley had fled from college and was brought back from San Jose by Deputy Marshal H. P. Howard and married Miss Barry. The ceremony was performed by Justice of the Peace Edgar in the presence of Miss Barry's mother, Mrs. Ada Lent, and the attending physician. Bulkley was expelled from college.

A Beautiful Girl.
Miss Barry, for the last year and a half has been engaged more or less in literary work. She was for a time attached to a San Francisco evening newspaper. Her friends regarded her as a girl of unusual talent. She entered the college in 1901 from Berkeley, and was considered one of the prettiest girls in her class. About a year and a half ago Miss Barry appeared in court to swear to a charge of insanity against her mother, Mrs. Lent, and the woman was sent to the Napa insane asylum.

Mother Escapes From Asylum.

Last July Mrs. Lent made a sensational escape from the asylum, and the officials at Napa charged Miss Barry with being in collusion with the patient and afterwards hiding her. There was a great row in official circles, but Mrs. Lent has never yet been returned to the asylum. Miss Barry always retained her name of Barry, notwithstanding that she was married to Bulkley legally. She secured a divorce as soon as the law would permit and has since been living in North Berkeley. She is twenty-four years of age.

Gets a Job With $5000 Annual Salary

OYSTER BAY, N. Y., June 22.—President Roosevelt today appointed John C. O'Laughlin of Washington a secretary to the American Commission to the Japanese exposition at Tokyo in 1912. His salary will be $5,000 a year.

12 Deaths in New York by Drowning

NEW YORK, June 22.—Twelve deaths by drowning were reported in New York and vicinity in the past 24 hours, the intense heat drawing thousands to the beaches to seek relief either in or on the water. One of the drownings was that of John Milton, who lost his life rescuing three men who had capsized in a light boat on the East river.

MISS CORINNE BARRY.

GIRL SAVES MAN'S LIFE WARM WAVE HAS HIT CITY

Miss Chubb Leaps Into a Skiff and Rows to the Rescue of Otto Ryf.

BERKELEY, June 22.—Miss Sarah Chubb of Vacaville saved the life of Otto M. Ryf of this city yesterday, when Ryf fell from a sloop on which were a party of eight.

The boat was sailing from Suisun to Benicia and was going before a good breeze. Ryf was standing near the bow when he lost his balance and plunged into the choppy water.

Leaps in Boat.

Before the boat could be brought about and before anyone else had time to think, Miss Chubb pulled the skiff, which was trailing behind the sloop, up close astern, cast off the painter and leaped in.

She immediately put out the oars and pulled for Ryf, who was struggling against death in the sloop's wake.

Expert Oarswoman.

Miss Chubb is an expert oarswoman and she soon reached Ryf. He was so exhausted that she was compelled practically to lift him into the boat.

The sloop, which had gone on far ahead, was put back and the heroine and Ryf taken aboard.

In the sloop, "The Cupid," which is the property of George Martin of Vacaville, were besides Miss Chubb and Ryf, Dr. and Mrs. White of Benicia, Miss Annie Chubb, Mr. and Mrs. George Martin of Vacaville and Howard Davis of Berkeley.

Miss Chubb is 22 years of age. Ryf is circulating manager on a local paper and resides at 2246 Atherton street.

Entire Pacific Coast Swept With Torrid Blast This Morning.

W. F. Myers, assistant instructor in the University of California Observatory, stated this morning in regard to the temperature that the warm wave had swept the coast at sunrise this morning. The thermometer read 74.9 degrees in the shade at 11 a. m. and had reached 76 degrees, the maximum for the day, at 1:45 o'clock.

The highest temperature for the year was 78.9 degrees, on May 23.

RUEF HOPES TO BE FREE TUESDAY

List of Prospective Bondsmen Submitted to District Attorney for Inspection—Must Qualify for $1,500,000

(Special to The Tribune.)
Erskine Richardson; E. R. King, R. W. Muller, Joseph and Leopold Hirsch, William Cohen, W. L. Williamson, Louis Friedman, F. C. Immel, Albertine Davis, M. Schymensky, K. A. Lundstrom, A. M. Edelman, J. Blum, Leopold B. and David Hirsch, M. D. Levinson, C. A. Meyer, A. A. Kahn.—Bondsmen for Abraham Ruef.

SAN FRANCISCO, June 22.—There seems to be no doubt that Abraham Ruef will be released from the county jail tomorrow. The former political boss is ready with bondsmen representing a sum considerably in excess of the $1,500,000 required for the 118 indictments against him and today furnished the district attorney with a list of his sureties and the amount for which each would qualify.

Will Examine Sureties.

District Attorney Langdon this morning made a formal demand upon Attorney Murphy, representing the defendant, for a list of the bondsmen, and this was accordingly furnished him. The prosecution will have twenty-four hours in which to look up the security offered and satisfy themselves

BARTNETT COWERS IN COURT

Visibly Quails When Attorney for the Prosecution Points Finger at Him and Calls Him Coward.

(SPECIAL TO THE TRIBUNE.)
SAN FRANCISCO, June 22.—By 5 o'clock tonight the fate of Walter J. Bartnett, vice-president and chief legal counsel of the California State Deposit & Trust Company, should be in the hands of the jury. Throughout the day the prosecution and defense have been battling in a war of words in last endeavor to influence the twelve men who have been sworn to try the bank of deal.

Spirit Discussed Business.

A feature of the trial was the testimony of J. Dazell Brown, convicted manager of the wrecked bank, who said on the occasion that Bartnett had told him that "the spirit of Ellen T. Colton had instructed him to use the Colton bonds."

TRIAL COST NATION A BIG SUM

Government Expended $100,000 in Securing Evidence in the Conspiracy Case Tried at Washington.

WASHINGTON, June 22.—Gailley, Frederick A. Hyde, Joost H. Schneider, No. 1 gildity, John A. Benson, Henry P. Dimond.
This was the verdict rendered at 8:45 o'clock this afternoon by a jury in the Criminal court here in the case of the trial of these four men, who are westerners, one of them, Benson, a millionaire real estate operator, for alleged conspiracy to defraud the government out of valuable lands in the far West. The jury had been out almost seventy-five hours.

Benson and Dimond Released.

Benson and Dimond were immediately released from custody. All four men have been under $100,000 bail. Hyde's bail was increased under the jury's verdict to $20,000 and Schneider's to $15,000.

The jury engaged in one of the most protracted deliberations on record here in Federal cases.

All the defendants had expected disagreement or acquittal and had made plans for departure from the city.

WASHINGTON, June 22.—The jury in the case of F. A. Hyde, J. A. Benson, J. H. Schneider and Harry P. Dimond, who were indicted over four years ago for alleged conspiracy to defraud the United States out of large tracts of public lands in the west, today in the Criminal court, here reported that they had not reached an agreement.

The court instructed them to make one more effort to reach an agreement, and if they could not then agree he would discharge them from their responsibilities.

Manifold Ramifications.

The ramifications of this case stretched from Washington City to the Pacific Coast states, involving John A. Benson, millionaire real estate operator of San Francisco; Frederick A. Hyde, Henry P. Dimond and J. H. Schneider, indicted for alleged conspiracy to defraud the Government of public lands.

The case has attracted wide interest. After numerous delays the trial was finally begun in this city on April 1 before Justice Stanford in the Criminal court.

Trial Has Cost $100,000.

Nearly three months were occupied in presenting evidence, principally of a technical nature. Hundreds of records from the land offices of California, Washington and Oregon were placed in evidence, and much time consumed in their identification by witnesses.

Through the appropriation of $60,000 by Congress last winter to cover the cost of bringing nearly 200 witnesses from California and Oregon, the Government was enabled to proceed with the case of the numerous postponements, due to lack of funds. It is estimated that the prosecution has cost the Government $100,000 or more.

Indicted for Conspiracy.
The indictments charged generally that the defendants, from October, 1904, to February, 1904, in this city, unlawfully

'THIS WILL KILL MY MOTHER'

Burglar, Who Places Blame on Missing Pal, Declares His Arrest Will Blight Family.

Henry Leither, who is in the County jail where he was placed by Constable W. C. Allen, after his arrest in the Fruitvale Lumber Company's office, where he was in the act of robbing the safe, refuses to divulge his past record. He has given the names of Harry Leder, Henry Lenter and Henry Leither. The latter, he says, is his true name. Leither is 35 years old. The prisoner says the news of his arrest will kill his aged mother and blast the reputations of his sisters and brothers, who bear a good name. He claims to have been a former sailor on the gunboat Bennington, but because of his stump of a leg cannot return to the navy. He says he has been out of work and is not a professional robber. This the Sheriff does not believe.

Leither says that he and the other

MOST GIVE INCREASED BAIL

Salesman Accused of Embezzling Must Furnish $10,000 Security to Gain Release From Jail Cell.

(SPECIAL TO THE TRIBUNE.)
SAN FRANCISCO, June 22.—William I. Woodman, salesman for the Whittier-Coburn Company, who was arrested on Saturday for alleged embezzlement of between $5,000 and $20,000 of the firm's money, was instructed and arraigned before Police Judge Cabanis today on a specific charge of purloining $87.40 from his employers.

The defendant was represented by Attorney J. C. Whaley, and although the latter told the court that his client was unable to raise the sum of $10,000 bail which was first fixed in the case, the judge increased the amount to $10,000. This was done at the request of Assistant District Attorney Deasey, who stated that further evidence of Woodman's plannings had been unearthed by the prosecution.

The case was continued until next Monday for hearing.

Anna Gould Will Wed in England

PARIS, June 22.—The departure of Mme. Gould and Prince Ivan de Saxe from Paris for England, where they will be married, is confirmed. The couple will not again return to France until the wedding has taken place. George J. Gould and his family are still in Paris.

AN ANTI-AMERICAN CIRCULAR ADVOCATES DEATH AND REBELLION IN THE PHILIPPINES

MANILA, June 22.—An inflammatory anti-American circular has been issued here anonymously and distributed. It bears the Caballero signature of the old Katipunan society, and denounces the Americans, saying they have brought tyranny instead of liberty, and that their purpose is to rob and enslave the Philippine people. It calls them shameless, dishonest, drunken, thieves, and attacks the morality of American women and accuses the government of graft.

Pending open revolution, it urges a campaign involving the assassination of individual Americans, burning their homes, killing their infants, and concludes with the wish for "long life to the Filipinos" and "Death to the Americans."

It is doubted if the circular will be productive of any serious results.

COMMISSION FOR PLAYGROUNDS

Mayor Mott today signed and approved an ordinance, which provides for the formation of a playground commission, which will select an advisory board in conjunction with the Board of Public Works, in beautifying the new city playgrounds. The ordinance provides that at least three of the members of the commission must be women.

The Mayor has also appointed the members of the commission but it is thought that it will not be until the next week that the board will meet. It is understood that the Mayor's desire to pick out the most representative members of the city in this city.

HYDE CONVICTED

ly conspired to defraud the United States out of large tracts of public lands in the West. It was alleged that Hyde and Benson secured title to school lands in state forest reservations by alleged fraudulent methods and that those titles were then assigned to the United States Government for sale on purposes under the act of 1907, securing the Government attorneys alleged, 100,000 acres in this manner.

Hyde Well Known.
Frederick H. Hyde has been a most prominent man in the business community of California and is well known in San Francisco and Oakland. He was at one time engaged in the piano business, but for a number of years past devoted himself to speculation in government lands in California, Oregon and other States. He is believed to have amassed a large fortune.

Automobile Enthusiast.
He is an enthusiastic automobilist and at one time was the president of the California Automobile Club, but resigned when he got into trouble with the government. He was at one time identified with the San Francisco school department and was president of the Board of School Directors. He completely did his duties that day that he was in the "Hyde board."

Benson's Career.
J. A. Benson, who is mentioned in the above dispatch, is one of the most noted men who have been connected with the alleged attempts to defraud the government of the United States of the lands which it has reserved for the people. His name has been identified with alleged illegal transactions of this kind for a long time, but the prosecution which he has undergone does not seem in any manner to effect his equanimity.

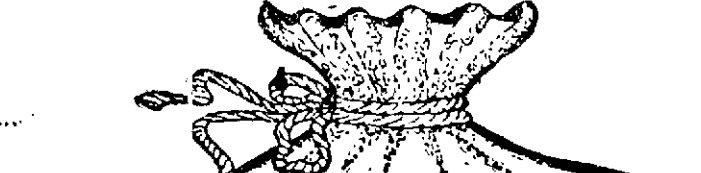

He has spent years of time in fighting for his liberty in the courts, mainly in Oregon, where, it is alleged, the most heinous of his transgressions have been alleged against him.

MARRIAGE LICENSES

The following marriage licenses have been issued:
Edward J. Sweeney, 31, and Grace P. Ayward, 31, both of Oakland.
George T. Elliott, 72, Hollister, and Lora Mae Gibson, 51, West Berkeley.
George Rogers, 32, Oakland, and Ruby Dufour, 25, Alameda.
Albert Sullivan, 34, and Carrie E. Ashcroft, 31, both of San Jose.
William J. Russell, 21, and Martha C. Snow, 18, both of Alameda.
Joseph A. Rogers, 26, and Clara E. Joseph, 19, both of Alameda.
William J. Vetter, 23, and Alice H. Vaccarezza, 19, both of Alameda.
Philip S. Whitehead, 19, and Mary I. Wallace, 16, both of Oakland.
John J. Brown, 31, Oakland, and Alice L. Schneider, 23, Alameda.
John Weitzel, 25, and Amy Wigmore, 18, both of Berkeley.
Howard M. Johnson, 23, and Laura Lee, 23, both of Berkeley.
Stanley L. Paraday, 31, San Francisco, and Eva M. Lee, 19, Oakland.
Daniel J. O'Connor, 27, and Corinne Barry, 25, both of Berkeley.

TEST CASE ON RACE TRACK BILL POSTPONED

Turfmen All Over Country Are Deeply Interested in Outcome.

NEW YORK, June 22.—Justice Elmhurst in the Supreme Court today adjourned until Thursday the test case of Melville Collins, who was arrested at Sheepshead Bay race track last Friday for making a bet of $5 on Hotspur. Assistant District Attorney White of Kings county secured the postponement.

The arraignment of persons arrested charged with making bets, scheduled for today at Coney Island, was also postponed, thus deferring for several days the expected judicial interpretation of the new anti-betting laws.

Turfmen Interested.
Racing interests in this city and throughout the country are keenly interested in the case of Collins, who was selected by counsel for the Jersey club to be arrested at the Sheepshead Bay track last week in order that a judicial interpretation of the new anti-gambling laws may be obtained. It is reported the Kings county Grand Jury in Brooklyn would begin an investigation of the conduct of all the race tracks in that county, which comprise Sheepshead Bay, Gravesend, and Brighton Beach.

Hearing Set.
The hearings in the case of the nineteen bookmakers arrested at the Gravesend and Sheepshead Bay tracks were set for June 29 by Magistrate McKee in the Coney Island court today. The action was taken at the request of both the District Attorney and counsel for the defendants in order to await the disposal of the Collins test case, now before the Supreme Court.

HIGH PRAISE FOR TORPEDO FLOTILLA COMMANDER

MARE ISLAND, June 22.—Lieutenant Hutch I. Cone, who brought the Atlantic torpedo flotilla to the Pacific, has received a letter from President Roosevelt commending him and the officers and men of the mosquito craft. The letter is dated at the White House and after stating that the enrolling of South America by the battleship fleet was a feat which had received much deserved attention, the President says: "Yet, if I should draw any distinction at all it would be in favor of you and your associates who have taken out the torpedo flotilla. Yours is even a more notable feat."

The President closed with thanking the officers and men. The letter was read by the commanding officer of each torpedo boat to his officers and men.

WRITERS SWAMP ESSAY COMMITTEE

WASHINGTON, June 22.—The Republican Congressional Committee has been overwhelmed with replies to its offer to pay $150 for the best article not exceeding 1000 words, on the question "Why the Republican Party should be successful next November." Almost 500 replies have been received, although the offer has been open only three weeks and does not close until after the Democratic convention in July.

NEW YORK, June 22.—W. J. Connors of Buffalo, chairman of the State Democratic committee, was in New York today and said to several newspapermen that he believed Mr. Taft would be an easy candidate for the Democrats to defeat.

"There are several stronger men who might have been nominated," said Mr. Connors, but none weaker. His only qualifications for the office is that Roosevelt wanted him.

"I'd rather say nothing about Sherman. Everybody knows about him."

"Is the nomination of Bryan as certain as was that of Taft?" Mr. Connors was asked.

"I won't believe it until I see it," he declared. "There are other Democrats who can defeat Taft beyond a doubt."

"Who—Johnson?"

"To a certainty."

"Well, if the New York delegation sees that Bryan's nomination is certain, will it come into line?"

"We'll wait until we get to the convention."

JUDGMENT IN TEST CASE IS POSTPONED

Judge Ogden, this afternoon, set next Wednesday as the time he would hear the appeal taken by E. J. Sweeney, a drayman, from the judgment rendered by Justice of the Peace Edgar McGee in his hearing a bond of $1000 in Berkeley from Oakland without a license. Matthews admits that he collected for the job when he delivered the load in Berkeley.

REPORTS RICH STRIKE IN CALAVERAS COUNTY

H. W. Norman of this city, vice-president of the new Mechanics Mining Company, left today for Calaveras, where he will inspect the progress of the properties of the company. It is reported that on a 200 foot level ore has been struck that assays $25,000 a ton.

WANTS $18,000 TO KEEP UP THE SANITATION WORK

Dr. Ewer, Oakland's Health Officer, Urges Action by City Council

One of the most important matters to be considered by the City Council tonight will be the continuance of the sanitation campaign that has been successfully carried on for several months by Dr. E. N. Ewer, Oakland's city health officer, and Dr. J. D. Long, of the United States Public Health and Marine Hospital Service.

Dr. Ewer, when asked today for his opinion of the matter, said:

"Already $55,000 has been expended in Oakland for the improvement of sanitary conditions and the work is not completed. In order to make effective the work already done it is necessary to keep up the campaign for at least six months longer.

Uncle Sam Helps.
"Because of the present state of affairs this can be done without incurring the large outlay that was necessary at the beginning.

"The Federal authorities have offered to contribute $3000 a month to continue this work and the other half year contingent upon the city of Oakland supplying a like amount. It is very unusual for the government to make so liberal an offer as this, and in view of the fact that the work of sanitation is not entirely completed it seems to me that it would be the height of folly to fail to take advantage of this offer.

$18,000 Needed.
"It is believed by the Health Department that the City Council ought to appropriate the $18,000 necessary for the ensuing six months.

"Aside from the sanitary phase of the subject the Health Department has been forced to borrow money from business men who always expect and provide in monthly expense accounts for losses caused by depreciation of rats, that since this war of extermination against rats has begun, losses from this source have greatly diminished.

"This is a source of gratification to the Health Department, as at the beginning of the work there was no thought of reaping any benefit beyond securing improved sanitation.

Nuisance Abated.
"Not by any means the least good accomplished is the final abolition of the West Oakland garbage dumps. They were a nuisance and a source of annoyance not only to the people of that district and to the city at large, but also to the Health Department, for many years, in spite of the strenuous efforts of successive health boards to suppress the nuisance.

"There has been a marked diminution in sickness in Oakland, and the plague of fleas has decreased to a large extent."

Meetings Tonight.
The Board of Health will meet this evening and will hold a brief session, at which time the proposed ordinance regulating the sanitary conditions in markets and the sale of pure foods will be under consideration. The proposed measures were prepared by Dr. R. A. Archibald, city meat and food inspector, who is desirous of having the proposed measures made laws, so that the market and food conditions can be better regulated. The butchers of the city are prepared to oppose the proposed measures.

After this meeting the members of the board will adjourn to the meeting of the City Council, where their report on the sanitary conditions in the local theaters will be considered.

The City Council will meet tonight as a committee of the whole, take up the report of the Board of Health in regard to the sanitary conditions of the theaters of this city.

It is understood that a large number of the theater proprietors will attend the meeting and take part in the discussion in regard to the report.

LOUISVILLE, June 22.—The International Sunday School convention last afternoon decided to hold their next convention in San Francisco in 1911.

DISCHARGED FROM PRISON; IS CRAZY

Ex-Convict Unbalanced Mentally by Long Term of Incarceration at Folsom.

SAN JOSE, June 22.—Jack Layman, who several days ago was released from the State Prison at Folsom, at the expiration of an eight years term for burglary, was arrested at Alviso this morning and placed in the County Jail here. Layman appears to be unbalanced mentally, and it is thought, to his long incarceration.

3 DECISIONS GIVEN BY THE APPELLATE COURT

SACRAMENTO, June 22.—In the Appellate court today, in the matter of the San Jose Safe Deposit Bank of Savings vs. Bank of California, the judgment of the lower court was reversed. In the case of Annie E. Teich vs. San Jose Safe Deposit Bank of Savings, a reversal is also given. A petition from the district attorney of Calaveras county for a writ of prohibition restraining the judge of the Superior court of Calaveras from settling a bill of exceptions in the matter of the people vs. Luther Everett, was denied.

EXPLAINS HANDLING OF GERALD ESTATE

R. M. Anthony, assistant superintendent of the Southern Pacific, appeared before Judge Hays in the Probate Court today on an attachment issued against him to show cause why he had not rendered an account as executor of the estate of the late E. E. Gerald. Anthony's attorney, Sherman Pratt, took all the blame, saying his client had made a statement and given it to him, but in going away to the country the document was not filed. Had the circumstances been known Judge Hays, who was on the bench Friday, would not have issued the attachment.

safe cracker, whose name he says is John Morris, came to Oakland from San Francisco about 9 o'clock Saturday morning. They got off at the Broadway and Seventh street station and spent the morning and early afternoon in town. About 5 o'clock they went to Fruitvale. They walked past the lumber office and made note of its surroundings. They returned to Oakland for a few hours and started for their mission of theft. Lether says he carried the heavy grip containing the outfit and left it outside while his pal went into the office and put out the light.

Blames His Pal.
The prisoner puts all the blame on his partner. He says he was ordered to go inside and did so. The charge was placed over the safe floor and he stepped behind a partition when the explosion occurred. His pal carried the glycerine syringe into Lether's pocket, according to Lether, and that is the reason he had it on him when arrested.

Lether says his pal ordered, "Come on and get the money," and they were in the act of prying off the inner safe door when the officers burst in upon them.

The captured thug says he did not have a gun on him, but Constable Allen found his cast-off weapon under a counter in the office. Lether said he thought there were twenty shots fired in all, instead of five, and he was glad when the officers ceased firing and made him a prisoner. He says they gave him and he will make no legal fight.

He will come up in the Brooklyn township court before Judge Geary, where Allen has him charged with robbery. He will be held over to the Superior Court and will plead guilty, according to his own statement. Sheriff Barnett is investigating the man's record.

APPOINTED GUARDIAN FOR 9-YEAR-OLD BOY

Dr. Lucia M. Lane was named by Judge Ogden this afternoon to be the guardian of 9-year-old Frederick Deakin, who was taken away from his foster mother, Mrs. Bertha Deakin, a former member of the Bostonians, by the Associated Charities because of his unruly and his moral surroundings were contumacious. Mrs. Deakin and her husband, Sam Deakin, conduct a small grocery at Sixty-seventh street and San Pablo avenue.

Mrs. Deakin claims the child was her own, but her former husband, F. T. Cox, declared that she got it from an orphan asylum when it was an infant.

CHINESE COOK TO SERVE 5 YEARS FOR BURGLARY

Pong Sam, a Chinese cook, who stole $1000 from Mrs. J. Westall of Berkeley, was sentenced by Judge Ogden this morning to serve five years in the penitentiary at San Quentin. The prisoner pleaded guilty to the charge and admitted a prior conviction and sentence for burglary.

SUES FOR BARGE SAID TO HAVE BEEN LOST

The Oakland Barge and Lighter Company brought suit this afternoon in the Superior Court against Charles T. Foster for $1875 the loss of a barge said to have been hired by the defendant. The barge was worth $1600 and rent for it amounted to $275.

OAKLAND WOMEN ARRIVE IN BOSTON PRISONER GASHES THROAT IN JAIL

Representatives of California Club Attend National Convention of Women's Clubs. Man Charged With Wife Murder Makes Unsuccessful Attempt to End Life With Razor.

BOSTON, June 22.—Every train coming in Boston today swelled the arrivals of delegates to the ninth biennial convention of the National Federation of Women's Clubs, and it was expected after the arrival of the late evening train more than 2000 of the 2500 club women expected to attend the meetings of the convention during the next two weeks would be in the city. Among the arrivals was a large delegation from California, San Francisco and Oakland being well represented.

The reception committee members, of whom there were hundreds, met the delegates as they arrived and escorted them to their apartments and assisted in caring for them.

WILL PRESENT PLANS FOR WATER FRONT WORK

The plans for the improvement of the water front of water front of this city, as prepared by the Board of Public Works will be presented to the City Council on July 6. The plans provided for an improvement to cost about $25,000, and it is understood that the work will be done in portions until the whole plan is completed. The Council will consider the plans and report of the Board of Public Works and it is thought that work on the arranging of a bond election will take place this year.

FOOTPADS OPERATE IN GANG

Numerous Holdups Occur in Same District Where Mysterious Shooting Is Said to Have Occurred.

It is the belief of the police that a gang of footpads operated in this city Saturday night in the region south of Seventh street, as several reports of hold-ups in that vicinity have been received. It is also thought that Alfred Kennedy, who now lies at the Receiving Hospital in a dying condition, may have been one of the highwaymen, as he claims to have been at Fourth and Alameda and Fourth and Jefferson streets and that he was shot while there, being mistaken for a footpad.

E. S. Kniffen of Richmond claims that he was held up at Second and Jefferson streets and robbed of a watch and chain and $30 in cash. He was found lying in the street by John Geannon, a watchman for the United Engineering Works at Second and Jefferson streets. Kniffen was arrested on a charge of drunkenness and taken to the city jail, where he told of the robbery. He claims he was attacked by two men, one of whom hit him in the nose and knocked him to the street.

Young Robbers.
Wendell Gantner, 260 Noe street, San Francisco, reported that early Sunday morning, while he was walking along Seventh street, near Jefferson, he was stopped by three men who claimed they were policemen. They grabbed him, he says, and took $22.50 away from him. Gantner says that the robbers were all young men.

Fred Robertson of 1812 Thirteenth street claims that he was held up at Twelfth and Fallon streets Saturday night by two men and beaten. They stole nothing.

BARTNETT'S TRIAL ENDS

Attorney Cook in part, "is a breach of faith with the dead, because of the appointment of Bartnett as executor of the estate of the late John W. Bartnett, who was killed in the Colton case. They are all three responsible, Brown, Bartnett and Treadwell. The credit of the city has been shaken by the manipulations of the California Safe Deposit & Trust Company. But let me confine myself to Bartnett."

"In this case there is direct testimony. When Bartnett was connected with the bank he was a clerk in the law office of Gunnison & Booth and became connected eventually with the bank. When did he connect himself with in order to deceive the depositors? The coal company, which he knew to be insolvent, and thus he spent a million and a half of the depositors' money. Why did he do this? Because he wanted to be a great financier. Bartnett was always staying behind somebody else. Always hiding himself so that people would say that he had nothing to do with the bank."

Fixing Responsibility.
"A second receipt is signed by Walker and Conner, neither of whom knew what was in the bank. Do you see the reason now? Bartnett wanted to make the bank responsible for the missing $235,000. Instead of Walter J. Bartnett. Make the depositors pay for the loss instead of the defendant."

"That is the reason to my mind why Mrs. Dalzell testified as she did. Because she who is the principal beneficiary, wants to get repaid by the California Safe Deposit & Trust Company."

During the argument the defendant, sitting behind his counsel, displayed great deal of nervousness. He quailed visibly whenever the district attorney pointed at him or when a strong point was driven home.

Cook was followed by Attorney Oscar Cooper for the defendant.

Scores Dalzell Brown.
The attorney for the defense launched a tirade of accusations against J. Dalzell Brown, whom he characterized in various terms of contempt while at the same time he praised Bartnett and endeavored to counteract the effect produced by the speech of Attorney Cook.

This afternoon Attorney Geary began in behalf of the defendant. Attorney Cook will consume an hour in closing and Judge Conley estimates that a half hour will be occupied with instructions to the jury.

SUPERVISORS RECEIVE MANY BIDS FOR COUNTY SUPPLIES

Requisitions From Officers Allowed by Board at Today's Meeting

Requisitions as follows were allowed today by the Supervisors: From the sheriff for soda for the county jail and tube and repairs for auto; from the county assessor for 8000 two-cent stamps and the county clerk for a steel safe for exhibits in court cases. The safe is to be delivered after July 1st.

Liquor Licenses.
Applications for liquor licenses were referred to the license committee as follows: Christ Effert, 2014 Talcott avenue; M. S. Francis, Centerville; Evan R. Jones, Alvarado; Thomas Place, Crow Canon; W. J. Hughes, Sunol; Toscano & Delmuze, Sunol; G. S. Clark, Midway.

Liquor licenses were granted to William Hopcroft, Fruitvale and Washington streets, and Claus Riemels, Dublin.

The liquor license application of Owen Tract were filed.

Bids for the grading, curbing and macadamizing of Bryant street in Fruitvale were received as follows: Ransome Construction Company, $2290; P. H. Honore, A. H. Kopperud, $2875; Lettiss & Ayers. The contract was awarded to the Ransome Construction Company.

Against Saloons.
A petition was filed by W. S. Embury and 104 other residents in Fruitvale precinct No. 1 protesting against the issuance of liquor licenses to any person in that district. The paper was referred to the county clerk to ascertain and report the number of qualified voters signed to it.

A petition by W. B. Finlay and 265 other residents in Fruitvale precinct No. 7 asked the board to grant liquor licenses to several applicants who were residents of that district. Among those recommended for the privileges are Owen Paul at the corner of East Fourteenth and High streets; John Marshall, 1336 High street; Carl Lynn, East Fourteenth and High streets; A. A. Swartz, 4501 East Fourteenth; William Shoenberg, 4700 East Fourteenth; Thelwell & Sullivan, East Fourteenth; A. Pellegrini, 1332 Vine street, and N. H. Holm, 700 High street.

Of these 266 names, 242 have been checked up as those of qualified voters of the precinct. The names of the remaining 22 petitioners are now being checked up by the County Clerk.

Petition vs. Protest.
The petition as it stands today overrides the protest filed with the board to the effect that no saloon licenses be granted to residents of the precinct, for the reason that the latter contains the names of only 170 qualified voters.

The protest was taken until tomorrow morning, when the board will consider proposals for county supplies.

County Supplies.
Bids were opened for all kinds of supplies in classes, for use in the several departments and institutions of the county after having been submitted by the following individuals and firms: John C. Rohan, P. H. Honore, J. E. Taylor, A. H. Kopperud, E. W. Williams, Louis Huzzoni, Joseph Hirschler, Young Brothers, Fred Becker, California Fish Company, Young Brothers, Western Fish Company, Monarch Coffee and Spice Company, J. A. Hill, Industrial House for Adult Blind, C. A. James, Morris Isaacson, Bowman, Company, George W. Fisher, Wishart's Drug Store, H. H. Schmitt, E. S. Salinger, J. R. Lanktree, George C. Hornemann, F. H. Dillman, I. Robinson.

The proposals were referred to the committee of the whole and will be considered by the board at a special meeting to be held tomorrow.

Brooklyn to Vote for the New Primary Law
Election in Eight Precincts Tomorrow

Tomorrow there will be an election in the precincts in Brooklyn township outside the city of Oakland, to determine whether or not the law governing the holding of primary elections shall be mandatory in that district.

There is no doubt that the law will be adopted with a sweeping majority because practically every qualified elector has signed one of the petitions which have been filed with the Supervisors, asking for the calling of this election and on the strength of which the election has been ordered.

Open All Day.
The polls will open at 6 o'clock in the morning, and close in the evening at the same hour.

There are eight precincts included in the district, six of them being known as Fruitvale precincts and two of them belonging to Brooklyn.

Voting Places.
The polling places are as follows: Fruitvale precinct No. 1, tent on north side of East Fourteenth street, between Twenty-fifth and Twenty-sixth avenues.

Fruitvale precinct No. 3, Upper Fruitvale Hall, south side of Hopkins street.

Fruitvale precinct No. 4, tent southeast corner Twenty-seventh street and Fruitvale avenue.

Fruitvale precinct No. 5, Firehouse, 1305 E. Street.

Fruitvale precinct No. 6, 4003 East Fourteenth street.

Fruitvale precinct No. 7, northeast corner East Fourteenth street and Deering avenue.

Brooklyn precinct No. 1, Lockwood school house.

Brooklyn precinct No. 2, office Elmhurst Review.

Precinct No. 2, the mountain district, being omitted.

Although Fruitvale Precinct No. 2 has a name and location, it has very few residents. These, such as they are, have registered and will vote in Fruitvale precinct No. 3.

The Supervisors will meet Wednesday morning for the purpose of canvassing the vote which will be cast tomorrow.

An election for a similar purpose is in progress today in Piedmont.

WOULD INCREASE THE REVENUE OF COUNTY
Suggestion Made to the Supervisors.

At the meeting of the Board of Supervisors this morning C. S. MacMullan made a proposition to the members which, he said, would result in a great increase in the revenue of the county. The proposition was as follows:

"OAKLAND, June 22.—To the Honorable, the Board of Supervisors: I hereby make the following proposition: For 50 per cent of the revenue therefrom, during the first twelve months of its collection, I will furnish the Board of Supervisors of Alameda county with information that will, under the present law, produce this county, if the law be enforced, as it should be, an additional annual income exceeding $10,000."

"The collection of this revenue has been neglected for years and the county thereby deprived of tens of thousands of dollars that by law it has been justly entitled to."

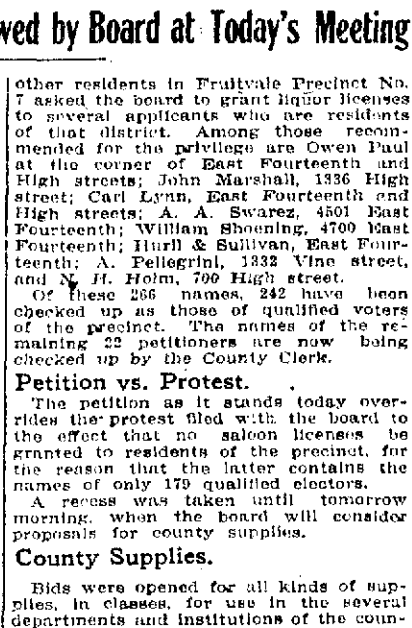

"If no revenue is derived through my information I shall be entitled to no compensation."

"The referred to additional revenue is not in connection with property assessments. Respectfully,"

"C. S. MacMULLAN."

The subject was referred to the committee of the whole.

TURFMEIN INJURED IN WRECK OF AUTOS

WILLIE DUGAN, injured in auto wreck. He is well known here.

Dugan Brothers in Racing Car Which Kills Occupant of Another Machine.

NEW YORK, June 22.—While racing with another machine in Beth Page turnpike, near Hempstead, Long Island, yesterday, the touring automobile of "Boots" Durnell, millionaire turfman, ran into and crushed a light car containing the family of Joseph Arosena, a well-to-do Spaniard of New Rochelle.

The head-on collision hurled Arosena from his seat and killed him almost instantly, his skull crushing against the radiator of the heavy flyer. His wife, their daughter, Inez Josephine, and the chauffeur, William Grimman, were painfully, though not dangerously hurt.

Five Were in Car.
In the Durnell car, whose owner had loaned it to them for the day, but was not present himself, were Eddie Dugan, the star jockey of Harry Payne Whitney's racing stable, his brother, Willie Dugan, formerly a jockey for Durnell, and now a trainer, Miss Emma Graham, a New York girl of 20, John Roller, a stable boy chum of Eddie Dugan, and Durnell's chauffeur, John Benedict. They were more or less hurt.

Willie Dugan sustained a fractured jaw, a broken nose and had lacerations. Benedict's arm was broken, and his face so badly injured that he was unable to talk.

Arm Dislocated.
Eddie Dugan was cut and bruised, but was able to go home. The Roller boy had his arm dislocated. Miss Graham was cut and bruised. All the victims were treated in the Nassau hospital at Mineola.

The collision occurred on account of the cloud of dust thrown up by the machine with which the Dugan boys and their friends were racing, which prevented them from seeing the Arosena car and they struck it before either driver had the slightest chance to turn out.

There were no arrests made. The Dugan boys declared they were not racing, but were merely "going at a pretty good clip." Witnesses assert this clip was at least forty miles an hour.

ARIZONA SHERIFF CATCHES RUSTLERS
Officer Breaks Up Gang of Horse Thieves Twenty Miles North of Flagstaff.

FLAGSTAFF, Ariz., June 22.—Sheriff Francis, Deputy Sheriff Pullman and Inspector Fred Hilden, broke up a gang of horse rustlers in the North San Francisco mountains, twenty miles north of Flagstaff yesterday, arresting three alleged rustlers named Wiley, Taylor and Bates with over 100 head of horses in their possession. The horses had been stolen off various ranges and were being driven to Flagstaff, N. M. From there stock has been run off into Montana. The prisoners are all strangers here, but are believed to belong to a gang that has been running stock off north for years past.

LOSES LOWER LID OF EYE IN STREET FIGHT
Ernest Canning, a boatbuilder, residing at 1841 Alameda street, lost the lower lid from his left eye and the other painful wounds in a fight at Twenty-eighth and Union streets after 9 o'clock last night. He found relief at the Receiving Hospital, where Dr. H. D. Irwin treated the injuries.

"The Master Magnificence," by Herman Scheffauer; "Lines On Loving Cup," by Charles Warren Stoddard; "The Irreconcilable," by Jacob Brown; "To a Sequela Forest," by Clarence Urry; "Invitation," by Robert Foster Pitts; "As Through a Glass Darkly," by Mira Abbott MacLay, and "Poco Tempo," by Thomas A. Harry De nande, a nine-year-old school boy, living with his parents at 18 Eighteenth street, was accidentally struck over the left eye last night by a playmate who was wielding a baseball bat in friendly play. The stick inflicted a gash in the forehead more than an inch long, which was sewed up with two stitches by Dr. Irwin at the Receiving Hospital.

say the authorities, that Dolan used this ruse to make his escape.

Not Recognized By Leithers.

Leithers saw Kennedy yesterday morning and no glance of recognition passed between the pair. He said, "No that's not the man. I never saw him before."

Kennedy looked up and did not as much as recognize the tall, dark-complected stranger who stood over his bed. Leithers is in the County Jail and in a statement to Sheriff Barnett says his pal's name was John Morris, and he must have escaped unhurt.

Kennedy, in a semi-conscious condition, made a statement to Captain Peterson that he was in Fruitvale and "got his" while cracking the safe. This response was made to a leading question by the detective who told the man he was dying and had better not go to his death with a lie on his lips. Later on when Kennedy came to his senses again he swore that he was never near Fruitvale and stuck by his first story that he was mistaken for a thug and shot down in cold blood by a man near Fourth and Jefferson. In another statement he said the shooting was near Fourth and Alice streets. The police have questioned people near both places and although they were awake about 1 o'clock Sunday morning, they heard no shot.

Doctor Is Summoned.

Kennedy said he went from the scene of the shooting to Dolan's house and asked for attendance. Dolan and his wife called Dr. George G. Reineke, who had him removed to the Receiving hospital. This was nearly 3 o'clock and Kennedy was quite conscious. He and the Dolans told the story about the footpad. Dolan stopped nervously around the operating room and watched every move of the physicians. His wife, who appeared at the hospital yesterday morning and said she was Kennedy's sister, is said to have put up a false story and is no relative to the dying messenger.

Soaked With Blood.

The condition of the room at the Dolan house where Kennedy was found by the doctor is one of the strongest clues that he was shot in the cottage at 615 Sixth street, and was not the victim of Constable W. C. Allen's volley in the Fruitvale office. The mattress of the couch on which Kennedy was lying is soaked through to the floor with blood. His white shirt is soaked with blood while his vest had but a little blood on it. The bullet just cut the edge of Kennedy's coat near the lapel.

What the Sheriff Says.

Sheriff Barnett, who is positive that Kennedy is not the Fruitvale safe-cracker, advances this theory and it is upon this circumstance that Detective McSorley got to work this morning.

Barnett says: "I have talked with Leithers and he swears that the dying man in the hospital is not his pal. Kennedy denies it too. Whether Leithers' accomplice was shot, it is a matter of opinion. He probably is, no doubt. I think that it is highly probable that Kennedy was in the room with Dolan's wife and when he came home and found him there, simply shot him."

"It is quite natural that Dolan would deny this. Kennedy, too, would want to keep himself free from the danger that he was shot while in company with another man's wife. He was in the house long enough and conscious enough to frame up this story about being shot at Fourth and Jefferson streets or Fourth and Alice streets."

A Suspicious Fact.

"The fact that Dolan has disappeared and his wife with him, gives us a strong suspicion that Kennedy is their victim. If he is, and I have every notion to believe that he is, he was certainly a game boy and the Dolans clever actors."

"The case is a remarkable one in this that the shooting at Fruitvale would give the man time enough to reach Oakland by 1 o'clock and get to the hospital at 3, and is recorded with Kennedy's case."

Sheriff Barnett has evidence in support of his statement that Kennedy is not the Fruitvale safe-cracker. Matters concerning the yegman's personal habits and the events that occurred Saturday offset the belief that the dying young man was a plot to rob the Fruitvale Lumber Company.

The Victim's Mother.

Mrs. Lizette Kennedy, the patient's mother, is nearly 60 years of age and is greatly worried over the affair. She declares that her son is innocent of any attempt at robbing a safe. She says that he left their refuge cottage at No. 6 Dayton avenue, between Lombard and Greenwich streets, San Francisco, two days ago, saying he was going up into the interior of the state in search of employment among the lumber camps in an outfit.

Looks Improbable.

A mere boy of 21 years, a safe-cracker, carrying around with him a complete outfit that would wreck the strongest vault, seems highly improbable, according to Sheriff Barnett and his deputies, who have looked into the case. Chief of Detectives Mahoney of the Southern Pacific talked with Leithers yesterday and looked at Kennedy. He shook his head and said the other yegman is still at large.

Dolan's May Escape.

The statement made by Captain Peterson, saying that he firmly believes Kennedy to be the safe-cracker, is based in some quarters as a ground-

TO RUSH IMPROVEMENTS IN LAKE MERRITT DISTRICT

City Council to Consider Appropriations at Special Meeting

Immediate action on the improvement of the proposed city park south of the Twelfth-street dam will be taken by the City Council at a special meeting of that body tonight. Several proposed ordinances, appropriating large sums of money to do the work will be taken up and will probably be passed to print. The special session of the Council has been called by Mayor Mott, who is desirous of having work commenced immediately on the gigantic improvements contemplated.

$140,000 For Work.

The council tonight will consider proposed measures to appropriate about $140,000 for the improvements of the Twelfth-street park site and Lake Merritt.

These proposed measures are: The construction of a rip-rap wall along the outlet of Lake Merritt, between Twelfth and Eighth streets at a cost of $15,000, purchase of a dredger to dredge Lake Merritt, the dredger to cost $30,000, dredging of Lake Merritt at a cost of $20,000, construction of a salt water plant at a cost of $40,000, the purchase of a rock crusher at a cost of $1500, purchase of a small dredger at a cost of $1250, purchase of a street sweeper at a cost of $700.

Laying Spur Track.

The Oakland Traction Company is now laying its spur track into the city property south of the Twelfth-street dam preparatory to hauling material there for the construction of the rip-rap wall.

As soon as the ordinance is passed and the money is appropriated the work will proceed with a rush.

The dredger which will be purchased for Lake Merritt will be used by the city for other work from time to time.

ORGANIZE FOR THE CAMPAIGN

First Ward Republicans Have Formed Fine Taft and Sherman Club.

The first ward is in the lead, in this city and vicinity, in organizing for the coming campaign, having already formed a club which is to make itself felt in the northern part of the city in the fight for the presidency, which is to be carried on with vigor in all parts of the country.

The new organization is styled the First Ward Taft-Sherman Republican Club and is to work in harmony with the club which has been formed in the First Ward of the city.

The club has behind it the support and support of the local Republicans of the first ward, which latter has made wonderful strides in recent years, not only in material prosperity but also in securing among its newer residents some of the most staunch Republicans in the State.

The temporary organization which has been formed has for president David C. Coleman and for secretary Charles A. Klinkner. In the formation of the organization there were a number of representatives of the ten precincts in the ward and all of them pledged themselves to make the club the most successful that that section of the city has ever had.

The permanent organization will be effected tomorrow night at a meeting which will be held in Klinkner hall, at which officers for the campaign will be chosen. All members of the Republican party in the ward are invited to be present.

HUNTS FOR A CITY UNDER CAMPUS AT BERKELEY

Psychic Expert With Magical Twig for Divining Rod Invades University.

BERKELEY, June 22.—"Professor" Joseph Voyle, president of the Berkeley Psychic Society, demonstrated yesterday that he has some marvelous powers of endurance for an old man. His 72 years did not interfere in the least with a lively climb he made up and down the steep side of the Berkeley hills.

Voyle, who followed his lead in a search for traces of a "psychic" city under the Berkeley townsite, Voyle was easily the freshest and most enthusiastic of the party after five hours of strenuous going.

The expedition had been advertised in advance and it proved a drawing card. There was an air of novelty and mysticism about the proceedings.

Magical Twig.

Voyle had claimed that a magical cork elm twig, which he carries, had been acting queerly of late every time he neared the campus.

The stick wouldn't stay still in his hands, but jump about and twirl at certain spots like a possessed. Voyle and some of his friends had interpreted these alleged antics of the cork elm as indicating the presence in the earth at various depths of the remains of a prehistoric city. Voyle had already declared that the cork elm twig had been acting queerly of late every time he neared the campus.

The day was hot and adapted for an outing but the expedition was too strenuous for many who joined it. Voyle, under the excitement and enthusiasm of his prospective disciples, was the youngest in action, although the oldest in the party.

Divining Rod.

With the cork elm divining rod in his hands he led his followers a merry chase, and to the top of Grizzly peak and thence two miles east to the stubbed summit of Baldy. The start was made at 2 o'clock from the Greek Theater and before the climb of Grizzly had been effected scores of the party had dropped by the wayside.

Near the top of Baldy are remnants of a stone fence, long a land mark and object of curiosity for local geologists and tourists and here, according to Voyle, the cork elm twig had a regular fit in its efforts to convey its eerie and hidden lore.

Voyle kept pacing backward and forward while he could not account for the actions of rod, or psychic compass, as he calls it, he was convinced that there was some special attraction underneath the stones.

Skeptics in the band thought the stones were the remains of an old sheep corral, but Voyle would not subscribe to this ultra-materialistic explanation. The divining rods of none of Voyle's disciples would respond to the attractions in this vicinity without psychic assertion.

Mrs. R. H. Johnson and Miss L. Muller were among the members of the party who operated with the divining rods. Both said that the rods worked at times for them. They explained, however, that they were interested in the principle; they caused the rods to turn rather than in the matters that possibly might be pointed out by them.

NEGLECTS TO SUPPORT GIRL HE WOULD MARRY

August Moullet, an Alameda laundryman who is wanted for the failure to comply with a promise and court order that he would support the girl he would marry, must appear within four months before Judge Ogden. In the meantime officers will try to locate him. He wanted to marry a 14-year-old girl and the law did not permit the marriage.

He promised to pay for the girl's support until she becomes 16, but for the past five months has neglected this duty and Probation Officer Ruess has been unable to find him.

ORGANIZE FOR THE CAMPAIGN

First Ward Republicans Have Formed Fine Taft and Sherman Club.

The first ward is in the lead, in this city and vicinity, in organizing for the coming campaign, having already formed a club which is to make itself felt in the northern part of the city in the fight for the presidency, which is to be carried on with vigor in all parts of the country.

The new organization is styled the First Ward Taft-Sherman Republican Club and is to work in harmony with the club which has been formed in the First Ward of the city.

The club has behind it the support and support of the local Republicans of the first ward, which latter has made wonderful strides in recent years, not only in material prosperity but also in securing among its newer residents some of the most staunch Republicans in the State.

The temporary organization which has been formed has for president David C. Coleman and for secretary Charles A. Klinkner. In the formation of the organization there were a number of representatives of the ten precincts in the ward and all of them pledged themselves to make the club the most successful that that section of the city has ever had.

The permanent organization will be effected tomorrow night at a meeting which will be held in Klinkner hall, at which officers for the campaign will be chosen. All members of the Republican party in the ward are invited to be present.

Some of the acts left over from last week are still prime favorites at the Orpheum, three more pleasing and varied acts than "The Boy Next Door," "The Awakening of the Toys" and Punter's company are not often found on one vaudeville program.

The seven hoboes are one of the particular attractions of the week, partly because their active objections to work strike a peculiarly responsive chord these vacation times. The rest of the reason for their popularity is their uniqueness. These hoboes are not accustomed to more than one tramp at a time—and their collective and seven individual abilities as fun makers. They all sing and there is one or two good voices among them. J. J. Burke, who is a hard looking bunch as ever, dodged a woodpile.

Satire on Trial Marriage.

"The Trial Marriage," a satire on a proposed new marriage law, appears first on the program and is given by Henry Keane and Olive Briscoe. It deals with the tangle which follows when a couple discover that the time for renewal of the marriage contract is passed. The situation, which presents many laughable features, is moved by a love song from Miss Briscoe.

This farce gives way to "The Boy Next Door," as funny a sketch as was ever heard in an equal number of minutes. Another hobo act, and something worth seeing, "The Awakening of the Toys," follows.

Applause for Fun-makers.

Then came John W. World and Mindell Kingston, who give a variety of things and do them well. They were splendidly received at their first appearance yesterday. Miss Kingston has a pleasing voice and World sings well. There is a lot of fun mixed with their singing and dancing.

"The Girl From Yonkers" is an amusing farce. Miss Mae Ellwood plays the part of a girl who enters the apartments of the vice city boy, Augustine Butler, played by J. S. Devlin. She is a girl from Yonkers and she is a girl from Yonkers.

Before his first appearance yesterday, Miss Kingston has a pleasing voice and World sings well. There is a lot of fun mixed with their singing and dancing.

Gives Impressions.

Sadie Sherman, with Impressions, negro dialect stories and singing, quite captivated Orpheum goers yesterday. She has a deep voice for a woman, but rich and pleasing, and makes a good stage appearance.

The Punteries were forced to do some extra "stunts" yesterday afternoon, so much was their slowness appreciated by the packed house.

The Orpheum orchestra, under Director Kowalski, rendered selections from "Mile Modiste" in the middle of the performance. Motion pictures completed the splendid program.

CITY JAIL PRISONER ATTEMPTS SUICIDE

George Conkley who is serving six months in the city jail on a charge of vagrancy, attempted to commit suicide yesterday by drinking a quantity of liniment which had been given him by the jail doctor. He was found in an unconscious condition and hurried to the Receiving Hospital, where he was revived.

MASSACRE LEADERS ARE GIVEN LIGHT SENTENCE

Nominal Punishment for the 'Murderous Russians'

ST. PETERSBURG, June 22.—Sentences were handed down today in the case of participants in the Jewish massacre of 1906 at Ballystock, when eleven Christians and seventy-three Jews were killed, and twenty-three Christians and eighty-two Jews were wounded. One of the prisoners was sentenced to three years penal servitude, thirteen others were condemned to from six months to a year's imprisonment and fifteen others were acquitted.

IS SHERMAN TO RETIRE?

Vice-Presidential Nominee Is Likely to Hold Present Jobs Until March 4th, Even if Elected.

WASHINGTON, June 22.—The question as to whether Representative Sherman will remain as chairman of the Republican Congressional Committee is not regarded as conclusively settled by persons who are familiar with the work of the committee in this city.

It is expected that this matter will be determined when the Republican national committee meets here July 1 when Taft and Sherman will be present and when many matters relating to the campaign will be determined. Sherman will probably continue to be a member of the House of Representatives until March 4, next, even in the event of his election to the vice presidency. Many of Sherman's friends here consider all talk of his resignation, either as chairman of the committee or as a member of the House of Representatives, as purely speculative.

TAFT IS ENJOYING A VISIT NOW AT YALE UNIVERSITY

Presidential Nominee Will Attend Class Reunion

NEW HAVEN, Conn., June 22.—Secretary Taft, accompanied by Judge Hollister of Cincinnati, arrived here this afternoon. The war secretary was given an enthusiastic reception at the station. Later in the afternoon he attended a meeting of the Yale corporation of which he is a member.

Reunion of Class of '78.

Mr. Taft expected to be present today at a reunion of his classmates of '78, there being ninety-six survivors, eighty-one of whom will be at Yale for the reunion. On Tuesday night Secretary Taft will attend his class dinner at the New Haven Country Club at which time he will deliver an informal address. Wednesday the Secretary will attend the alumni dinner in the University Hall at 1 p. m. where it is expected he will speak. Secretary Taft has agreed to speak at the dedication of a flagstaff erected on Yale campus by the class of '78 in memory of Lieutenant Ledyard who was killed in the Philippines.

Will See Baseball Game.

He will attend the ball game on Tuesday and will go to New London to see the Yale-Harvard boat race on Thursday.

Asked.

Secretary Taft said a man must be an optimist to succeed. He spoke with enthusiasm about the demonstration for President Roosevelt at the Chicago convention, saying, "It was a genuine demonstration, and I tell you it was a great demonstration."

Concerning the vice-presidential nominee, Mr. Taft said, "I have known Mr. Sherman for a long time and I think very highly of him. However, I do not think this is the time to discuss personalities."

Campaign in September.

Mr. Taft said he did not expect to return to Cincinnati until the fall and that he will start his campaign for the presidency in that city in September. Asked about his selection of a campaign manager, he said that nothing definite had been decided in that matter.

Mr. Taft's decline to discuss Mr. Bryan's comments on the anti-injunction plank adopted at the Chicago convention, nor would he discuss any feature of the Democratic situation.

MISS EVA GRAFF.

AUTHOR TO WED S. F. MUSICIAN

Engagement of Miss Eva Graff and Walter A. Rivers Is Announced.

The engagement of Miss Eva Graff and Walter A. Rivers is announced. No date has been set for the wedding, which will probably be an event in the near future. Miss Graff is a popular San Francisco girl and is a gifted musician, well known in musical circles about the bay. Rivers is in the employ of Kohler & Co. of this city. He is prominent in literary circles, having contributed manuscripts to numerous Eastern magazines. Rivers is a graduate of St. Matthews' Military Academy. After a brief honeymoon trip the young couple will reside in San Francisco.

DREADS TO FACE RECORD OF LIFE

Young Burglar Pleads Guilty Rather Than Endure Ordeal of Trial, Say Officers.

William D. Burke, alias Wood, pleaded guilty to two charges of burglary this morning before Judge Ogden and will receive sentence tomorrow morning.

Burke, who first gave the name of Wood, stole jewelry from the residence of J. B. Tallon and J. B. Ingalls. While being taken to the city prison as a suspect he broke away from Detective McSorley and was recaptured after the officer fired several shots in the air. The stolen goods were found on him.

The prisoner has the marks of a well-roomed and educated young man. The police term him the "Gentleman Burglar." He pleaded guilty, say the officers, to take a short trip to prison before his last life is revealed.

SAIGONA, Indo-China, June 22.—An engagement took place between a French force and a band of Chinese reformers at Bangnam, June 19. Details of the encounter are lacking.

OUTLINES BOUNDARIES OF GREATER SAN FRANCISCO

Suggestion That Alameda County Reach to Hayward

tee has evidently not given up the idea of attaching the cities and towns on the East side of San Francisco bay to that municipality. Today the Oakland Chamber of Commerce received a letter from the headquarters of the California Promotion committee, which said:

"The boundaries committee of the Greater San Francisco Committee has reached the following tentative decision regarding the boundary line of the proposed consolidated municipality, so far as it relates to Alameda county:

From Grizzly to Hayward.

"Beginning at Grizzly Peak, on the boundary line between Alameda and Contra Costa counties, thence to run along the ridge of the hills to the Oakland-Hayward boulevard, thence south parallel to the boulevard on a line five hundred feet easterly of its easterly line. Continuing the line to run southward thence along the line between Hayward to the Coyote river, including Alameda and Newark to the Dumbarton bridge.

Suggestions Invited.

"Desiring a full expression of all interested in the proposed movement, the committee expresses the hope that our organization and a body any and also individual members thereof will examine this tentative line and make such suggestions as you may deem fit and proper, with the result that the Boundary Committee may get a complete understanding of the ideas of the residents of your county."

She will be accompanied by Miss Margaret Clausen, also a Berkeley girl. They are acquainted in the islands and will be entertained royally.

Miss Putzker moves in the exclusive set of the college town, where she has a host of friends. Miss Clausen is prominent in social and educational circles about the bay.

NOISELESS 4TH FOR BOYS

500 Lads to Desert Firecrackers for Speechmaking in Order to Preserve Quiet of Brooklyn.

NEW YORK, June 22.—Many boys of Greater New York are uniting in a project to celebrate the Fourth of July most patriotically, and at the same time most sensibly, without blowing off their fingers or shooting out their eyes or starting costly fires. At least 5000 boys, it is expected, will gather at the City Hall on the Fourth and with the Stars and Stripes floating in the breeze above, will hear eloquent speakers tell them how lucky they are to have been born in this land of the brave.

The idea seems to have originated in the Bushwick section of Brooklyn, where quiet is precious. It meets with Fire Chief Croker's entire approval, and he has written an approving letter to the man who started the movement. Doubtless all the ambulance surgeons and firemen would have been glad to sign this letter. Borough President Ahearn has given permission to the celebrants to use the City Hall.

CO-OPERATIVE MEAT CO. HOLDS ELECTION

MANTELL GIVES SUPERB PRODUCTION OF MACBETH

ROBERT MANTELL, AS KING LEAR.

Gifted Tragedian Worthy Unstinted Praise

BY BETTY MARTIN.
Is Shakespeare passe, as Bernard Shaw declares, or are Oaklanders simply inattentive in a Rip Van Winkle-like sleep while Robert Mantell is in town?

This actor has given two performances at the Macdonough Theatre which should have been greeted by crowded houses instead of the handful gathered to listen to the greatest Shakespearean actor of his time.

Unfortunately Mrs. Mantell is dangerously ill and we shall not have the opportunity of seeing her during the Mantell engagement, which is for the week only. But Miss Lillian Kingsbury, while by no means an unusual actress, is proving herself to be an acceptable substitute.

Mantell's Macbeth.
The Macbeth of Robert Mantell given last evening deserves unstinted praise. To my mind his performance was the very finest ever given in Oakland, and his interpretation indelible.

It was my pleasure as well as privilege to meet Mr. Mantell behind the scenes during the sleep walking scene of Lady Macbeth. The actor at close view looked every inch the king, even while putting additional touches to his make-up.

"You must excuse me," said he, skillfully marking neck and brow with ageing lines. "I am preparing for the 'sea and yellow' that Macbeth speaks of when he comes on. I believe the actor faced about every ten years are supposed to lapse, and I keep growing a little bit older each time I go on."

This shows to a degree something of Mr. Mantell's art. "King Richard" is about making up depended largely upon expression, but in "Macbeth" the paint and powder boxes are called into requisition.

Makes Him Human.
"I try to make him human," said Mr. Mantell. "To make the meaning of the lines understood—not merely to come out on the stage raving and roaring."

And Mr. Mantell succeeds. If ever the desperate Macbeth impressed himself upon an audience it was last night. He put more significance into the line, "My dearest love, Duncan comes here tonight," than any other actor I have yet heard.

Later in the scene with Lady Macbeth, in which she reproaches him, "Art thou afraid to be the same in thine own act and valor as thou art in desire?" was an excellent piece of work, showing the play of feelings to marked degree, until Macbeth, casting aside his scruples, declares, "I am settled, and bend up each corporal agent to this terrible feat."

The Dagger Scene.
The dagger scene of Macbeth is a most intense bit of work. Most of this is given in a whisper reaching to the far end of the theater. But to my thinking the most realistic acting of the evening was the rendition of the banquet scene at which Banquo's ghost appears. Mr. Mantell's Macbeth, in the latter end of the play, is that of a man driven almost to insanity by remorse.

"Tonight 'King Lear' will be given. The opportunity for witnessing this tragedy seldom comes our way, and it is to be hoped the public will take advantage of it."

An all these Shakespearean performances begin promptly at 8 o'clock—a fact which is well to remember.

BETTY MARTIN.

SUGGEST GROWING RUBBER HERE

Practical Horticulturist Explains Details in Regard to Trees, Shrubs and Plants.

The second free Sunday morning lecture on horticulture was held yesterday from 10 o'clock till noon at Adams Park where many interested people congregated.

These free lectures are held under the auspices of the Juvenile Horticultural Society for the benefit of the public, with a view to arouse a greater interest in horticulture and for the spreading of the love for plant life.

Hugo H. Lilienthal, a Berkeley horticulturist, was the speaker and demonstrator.

Grow Rubber Here.

The following subjects were explained: The utility of a little known hardy rubber tree—"Ficus imperialis"—adapted for rubber plantations to California for the production of rubber. The utility of the camphor tree for commercial purposes; for the production of camphor in California. The utility of the Oriental poppy for the production of opium.

Uses of Eucalyptus.

The manifold utility of the blue gum tree—"Eucalyptus globulus"—so well adapted for California climate, utility as a disinfectant for medicine, for paving purposes of streets in cities, etc.

The following subjects were demonstrated: How to bud roses. Many eyes for budding and branches for cuttings of the Green rose (rosa viridissima) were given away free to all present at the meeting.

How to make cuttings of plants, trees and shrubs, and how to plant and to root them successfully.

How to Graft Cacti.

How to graft a whole collection of show-growing and beautiful, freely flowering cactus on one single tree ("Pereskia").

How poison is extracted from a cactus ("Euphorbia corollata") a very popular house-plant (by mistake).

Forces Against Progress.

Besides the regular demonstration next Sunday morning Mr. Lilienthal will speak on "The Forces Which Are Working Against the Progress of Horticulture in California."

This lecture will be very instructive.

PARISH TO HOLD ITS FIRST PICNIC

Father Quinn Secures More Property at Site of Proposed St. Andrew's.

The people of St. Andrew's parish will have their first annual outing on August 22 at Shellmound Park. An energetic committee is at work perfecting plans which will make the picnic one of the most attractive of the season.

The proceeds will be devoted to the building of the new church on the west side of Adeline street near Thirty-sixth. Father Quinn announced to his people yesterday that he had secured the Sullivan & Bothman properties, so that the church may be entered from Adeline or from Magnolia street.

The committee having charge of arranging the details of the picnic is as follows: J. A. Kennedy, chairman; W. Kennedy, secretary; P. Cavanagh, M. Silvey, D. Sullivan, Mr. Zinslen, D. Millan, Mrs. Freitas, Mrs. Bates and the Misses Gallant, Garvia, Tappell, La Valle, Guthrie, Hahn and Millan.

WAGON ROAD ON THE MOLE NEEDS REPAIR

Thoroughfare Is a Serious Menace to Automobiles and Vehicles Because of Loose Rock.

Editor Tribune: The present condition of the road leading to the Oakland Mole of the Southern Pacific railroad is becoming a serious menace to drivers of automobiles. There is not a day in which the tires of some machine are not cut by the loose rock dressing. The trouble seems to be that the road has not been rolled and there would seem to be no reason for the delay.

As the road's condition now exists it is practically unsafe for an automobile to run over it without sustaining damage, which is manifestly unfair to the many drivers of machines.

BEN, THE BORN BOOSTER, SAYS:

"That home trading is one of the best way to build up this city—to buy every thing you require right here at home. Years ago people had to buy in San Francisco on account of the small stocks carried here in Oakland. Now the stocks of all lines are upon a par with city stocks and when it comes to FURNITURE and CARPETS, they are above par."—BEN, THE BOOSTER.

OAKLAND'S POLICE DEPARTMENT TO GIVE BIG SHOW AT IDORA PARK

Widows and Orphans' Fund Benefit July 18th Will Attract Many

Oakland's police force will welcome visitors at Idora Park July 18, the day set apart at Idora Park for the benefit of the fund of the Widows and Orphans' Association, and every member of the department is expected to add to the enjoyment of the occasion.

To this end the talent is being rehearsed for a most varied form of entertainment, and some of the officers and their specialties are thus set forth in the press agent's copy handed out from police headquarters yesterday.

Seigneur William Woods is a great exponent of the immortal Shakespeare and he has consented to give some dramatic recitals that will be a real treat to all listeners. Officer J. L. Stocker has been granted a text all to himself, in which will be given a mystifying act, or, more properly speaking, a "trunk mystery."

Visiting Sleuths Invited.
"All visiting sleuths are to be cordially invited to attend the performance and use their best endeavors to penetrate the dark and hidden mystery of Stocker's original act."

"The so-called police 'third degree' receives much notice in the daily press in connection with high crime, and in order that the public, on the day of the carnival, may be taken into the confidence of the 'upper office,' an exposition of the degree will be given."

Third Degree Expert.
"Captain of Detectives W. J. Petersen will be in charge of the degree team and the so-called 'horror' will be elaborately produced by trained men. Many willing subjects have already offered their services."

"The manly art has many exponents among the wearers of the brass and blue, and Officers Will Hodgkins and Alex McKay are to don the mits in a friendly exhibition with blackened gloves, which is sure to provoke many peals of laughter."

Heavyweight Boxers.
"It is possible that some of the heavyweight detectives who know how to scrap in the past will lead their talents in that direction to entertain the day, and it is understood that Denny Holland, Harry Green and Tim Flynn have already consented to have a mix-up."

"The famous 'line' squadrons, the terror of the speed-running motorists and composed of Officers Keefe, Flynn and Dolan, will be faithfully depicted by means of moving pictures."

Arrest of Jolly Autoists.
"The many ludicrous incidents attending the arrest of a jolly party of autoists and the general scenes following the halting of speed-burners by the 'squadron' will certainly prove of interest. As many notable people who proudly possess autos have been arrested there will be something of local interest in the pictures."

Police Quartette.
"The police quartet, composed of Messrs. Caveney, George Powers, Harry Brown and Vernon Coley, are rehearsing most diligently for their part in the big performance. Harry Brown is also down for a clever clog dance and other stunts. As Brown was a thespian before his advent into the police force, he is counted upon for professional work."

Scotch Songs.
"Sergeant Bog Forgie in full Highland costume will be a doubt make a pronounced hit by sweetly singing songs of his native land and also by clever dancing. The sergeant will be accompanied on the bagpipes by Officer A. B. Smith."

Modern Samsons.
"Exhibitions of strength by members of the force as represented by modern Samsons in the respective persons of Fred Schroeder, Mike Powers, Mike Shannon and Jack Fally are sure to be of interest to students of physical culture."

"A colored troupe of singers who will render numerous songs of the sunny South have kindly donated their services to the cause. A colored jubilee band has also been secured, and they will contribute in no small manner to the success of the day."

Women to Bake Cakes.
"Without the co-operation of the wives and sweethearts of the officers success would not crown the efforts of the W. and O. Association; therefore the women are to hold a conference and all the good cooks in the policemen's families are to get busy with the big cakes in order to provide the necessary amount of refreshments. Candy and ice cream stands will also contribute to the cash box of the association."

Music and Dancing.
"Dancing will be indulged in during the day and evening, and Captain Beck, with the assistance of a large committee, will see that all who desire to trip the light fantastic will be permitted to do so to their hearts' content."

"Some valuable prizes have been contributed by merchants, consisting of brass beds and bedroom furniture, plate glass mirrors, etc. The members of the association look for an immense attendance on July 18th and are accordingly making the greatest preparations."

NILES WELCOMES ANOTHER ROAD

Growing Town Preparing to Greet First Train of Western Pacific.

NILES, June 22.—There will be a grand celebration here next Friday, when the tracks of the Western Pacific will reach this city and the first train of the new road, which means so much to this section of the county, will be run into this place.

Under the direction of the local Chamber of Commerce the occasion will be celebrated in a most enthusiastic manner, and in the celebration the people of all the surrounding towns will take part.

The Chamber of Commerce of Oakland has been specially asked to be present and the invitation has been accepted, and a large attendance of members has been promised. There will be a liberal spread for the entertainment of the guests, and after several speeches have been delivered, setting forth the importance of the coming of a new railroad to this community, there will be an inspection by the visitors of the several large industries which have recently located here, all of which are prosperous and are constantly increasing the amount of their output.

Police Quartette.
"The police quartet, composed of Messrs. Caveney, George Powers, Harry Brown and Vernon Coley, are rehearsing most diligently for their part in the big performance. Harry Brown is also down for a clever clog dance and other stunts. As Brown was a thespian before his advent into the police force, he is counted upon for professional work."

IMPOSING FUNERAL FOR PRINCE KAWANANAKOA

Ceremony According to an Ancient Usage

HONOLULU, June 22.—The funeral of Prince David Kawananakoa, who died recently in San Francisco and whose body was brought here on the steamship Manchuria, was one of the most imposing royal funerals ever held in Hawaii.

The ceremony was in accordance with ancient Hawaiian usage in the case of chiefs.

The first regiment of the National Guard of Hawaii, a detachment of the Twentieth infantry from Fort Shafter and marines and sailors from the battleships

Maine, Alabama and St. Louis, now in harbor, marched in the funeral procession besides hundreds of members, men and women, of native Hawaiian societies.

The entourage was surrounded by more "Kahili's" than attended at the funeral of King Kalakaua.

The services held at the capitol, where the body lay in state in the old throne room, and at the mausoleum were conducted by Bishop of Zeigler, the Roman Catholic bishop of the islands, and were attended by territorial, federal and military officials and the consular corps.

The first regiment of the National Guard of Hawaii, a detachment of the Twentieth infantry from Fort Shafter and marines and sailors from the battleships mander Harrison will increase his force by forty men and temporary lookups will be placed on Portsmouth Square, Mission street wharf and Jefferson Square.

CHICAGO SEAT OF NATIONAL COMMITTEE

CHICAGO, June 22.—Senator W. E. Borah of Idaho returned to Chicago yesterday, after the conference of the Republican sub-committee at Cincinnati with Secretary Taft and Congressman Sherman. Chicago, according to the Senator, will be the headquarters for the Republican committee, and base of operations for the national executive committee.

AMERICAN ENGINEERS GOING TO CONVENTION

Subject of Reclamation Work to Be Given Consideration.

CHICAGO, June 22.—Delegates from the American Society of Civil Engineers, which is to be held at Denver, left Chicago yesterday on a special train over the Burlington railroad. The train carried 125 of the leading engineers of the country, including President Charles MacDonald and Secretary Charles Warren Hunt.

One of the large questions to be discussed by the convention is the reclamation work being pushed by the United States government.

Among the prominent men in the profession on the train are C. F. Dyer, chief engineer of the Metropolitan Railroad of New York; Professor Ira Bolton, University of Illinois; Professor A. N. Talbot, University of Illinois; and John F. Wallace, former chief engineer of the Panama canal.

LONGFELLOW'S NIECE ILTS MINISTER OF SAUSALITO

End of Romance Stirs Literary Circles

Literary and artistic people are interested in the recent announcement that Miss Mary Greenleaf, daughter of the late James E. Greenleaf, the Boston artist, and niece of Henry Wadsworth Longfellow, the poet, has broken her engagement with the Rev. George Maxwell, minister of Christ Episcopal church of Sausalito.

Historic Boston Family.
Mr. Maxwell, who comes from the historic Howe family of Boston, where he was born, is a well-known figure in the literary world. His father, the late James E. Greenleaf, was a prominent Boston artist, and his uncle, Henry Wadsworth Longfellow, was one of the most famous American poets.

Doesn't Know Reason.
"I don't know why the engagement was broken," said Mr. Maxwell yesterday in reply to a question as to the reason for the termination of the betrothal. "I was simply notified that it no longer existed."

Wedding Postponed.
The wedding ceremony, which was to have taken place on June 19, at the Christ Episcopal church in Sausalito, has been postponed. The date for the ceremony has not yet been determined.

Home in Sausalito.
Miss Greenleaf, who is now residing in Sausalito, is the daughter of the late James E. Greenleaf, a prominent Boston artist. She is the niece of Henry Wadsworth Longfellow, the famous American poet.

Why Did She Jilt Him?
The reason for the termination of the engagement between Miss Greenleaf and Mr. Maxwell has not been disclosed. It is believed that the decision was made by Miss Greenleaf, who is now residing in Sausalito.

Getting Rectory Ready.
The congregation of Christ Church in Sausalito is preparing for the wedding ceremony. The rectory has been decorated with flowers and bunting, and the church is filled with guests.

Satin Cushions.
Satin cushions, table covers and other articles of needlework and embroidery have been ordered for the wedding ceremony. The church is preparing for the ceremony with great care.

Finds Solace in Study.
The Rev. Maxwell, who is now residing in Sausalito, is finding solace in his study. He is preparing for the wedding ceremony and is busy with his work.

Predicts Break in Hot Weather.
The weather bureau today issued the following bulletin, predicting a break in the hot wave throughout the country. The temperature is expected to drop in the coming days.

Blood Poison is a Curse.
It may be hereditary or contracted. It is a terrible disease that can destroy a person's health. It is caused by bacteria that enter the body through a wound or a cut.

Fines 24 Makers of Minla Paper.
Twenty-four companies manufacturing minla paper wrapping paper were fined $1000 each by Judge Hough in the United States District Court today. The companies were found guilty of producing defective paper.

Boys Play with Pistol; One Dead.
A young boy, 12 years old, was shot and killed while playing with a pistol. The boy was playing with a pistol in a park, and the shot went off accidentally.

San Jose, June 22.—While R. Maxwell, 10 years old, was accidentally shot in the head while playing with a pistol in the hands of his older brother, Benjamin. The boy was playing with a pistol in a park, and the shot went off accidentally.

Where Woman Reigns

"RATS" FOR WOMEN Taken From BEHEADED CHINESE Crafty Yankee Loots Graveyard

NEW YORK, June 22.—A ton of Chinese hair for the "rats" of American women formed part of the cargo of the big freighter Wray Castle which has just arrived from the Orient. The hair came from the heads of the Chinese bandits, who had been beheaded, and is valued at more than $5,000.

Spoken of this hair is on board the Wray to provide thousands of American girls with the necessary "filling" and great care was taken on the freighter to keep it from exposure of any sort that might spoil it for the market in the United States.

Hardly had the consignment of the Chinese hair been brought to the American dock on State Island before the British steamship Seneca arrived at Quarantine with twenty-two cases of Chinese pigstails which, according to Captain Grimes, were collected in Chinese cemeteries by a crafty American who collected the gruesome souvenirs for profit in three months' plunder of Chinese burial grounds.

"The gathering of hair in China," said Captain Grimes, "is quite an industry, as when a Chinaman is buried he is placed in a hole in the ground in an upright position, with the head sticking out of the ground. The head is closely shaved except for the pigtail. The Chinese believe their big Joss comes around in the night and takes the soul of the buried one to heaven by the pigtail. After the first visitation of the Americans with their shovels the brothers and sisters of the buried Chinaman reported that the Joss had been busy with their relatives and were content in the belief that the Joss had lifted the souls to Heaven by the missing pigtails."

'Obey' Should Be Left From Marriage Ceremony Declares Former Pastor

BERKELEY, June 22.—"Who is the head of the house?" Must the wife "love honor and obey?"

George H. deKay, a real estate dealer and former clergyman, in a discourse from the pulpit of the North Berkeley Congregational Church last night, during the absence of the Rev. Henry Kendall Booth, the regular pastor, elaborated at length upon the subject from the standpoint of the modern husband.

"When the modern husband comes to insist on the obey clause in the marriage ceremony or to exact obedience from his wife on scriptural edict he is treading on dangerous ground," said deKay. "I believe that all of you husbands will agree with me. The modern woman is apt to have ideas of her own on this question. She is very likely, if you quote the injunction of St. Paul, to tell you that St. Paul was an old fogy and just like all other men who think themselves 'It's no odds how finely grounded is a woman's respect for the Bible and how deeply is orthodox religion ingrained upon her she is very likely to wince when it comes to making obedience to the husband and installing him as her master."

"And who can blame her?" She is likely to declare that she is almost the equal of man physically, his rival mentally, and his superior morally. Why, then, should she enroll herself as a slave, she will ask. She is as good as any man, she will declare. And when we look at the large number of men we must admit that the woman and the wife is telling the truth. Some husbands and some churches are discreet enough to leave out of the marriage ceremony now any reference to the 'obey' clause of the old-time ritual.

"In the ideal home there will be no such thing as authority and superiority between the husband and father and the wife and mother. The love that Christ bore the church would not be regarded as a burden and it carried with it respectful but latent obedience and reverence. And as the scriptures point out the course of wisdom in the conduct of life, while there is no question of authority, it is possible, the purpose of the wife men to tell us that in matters of moment, in matters where the fate of home or the family was at stake, it is probably best that man should have the deciding vote.

"Finally I might say that the love that Christ bore his church should be extended by the husband to his wife. Tell your wife that you love her. Most men overlook this before marriage and forget it afterwards."

"I read that bandages are conspicuous by their absence in the new hats. I cannot keep my hat on. Can you suggest what is the matter?"

GIRL WITH A CURL IS NOW THE FASHION

Girls and girls, curls and curls. Not proverbial good little girls with prim little curls right in the middle of their foreheads, but actress girls and chorus girls, with the most coquettish or ringlets nestling in all sorts of cunning places on their necks.

The curl fad is the latest fad to turn the coiffures of the player women topsy-turvy. No matter how pompadour or waves may be arranged, be they on top of the head, be they on the nape of the neck, a curl—or two—or three—must be caught somewhere to dangle temptingly for the gratification of the admirer of woman-lovely woman.

Ethel Barrymore set the fashion. She appeared one night not so long ago with two of the most "sultansse" curls imaginable dangling just behind her left ear. Immediately they became the rage. Curls were adopted at once by every feminine member of the theatrical profession who had any desire whatever to do the correct thing.

Marguerite Clarke has selected one of the most fetching ways of arranging her curls. She parts her hair in the middle, waving it slightly at the sides. She then curls it in six large orkscrew curls, which she lets fall gracefully over her shoulders. Across the top of her head are three bands of ribbon, caught above each ear with a huge rosette of ribbon.

"I love to wear my hair this way," confided Miss Clarke, gayly. "Some way it makes me feel so young. I am positively kittenish. I feel like skipping rope, or playing tag—or—something. It's remarkable the effect my curls have on my disposition."

Maryland Tyson, the petite dancer, is another who has gone in for the curl craze. She says, indeed, that she is "just crazy" about them.

"To tell the truth," she says, "I think that people come to see my curls as much as they come to see me dance. I am an artist in the arrangement of my hair, and there you are. They say that a woman's hair is her crown of glory. It's the truth."

Another "curl fiend" is Carrie Bowman. She does not have so many, but the two she does have—O, my! There were two more alluring ringlets. Her skin is fair and her hair is dark, and the curls, clinging lovingly to her white neck, make a picture too soon to be forgotten. Then Miss Bowman is so charmingly unconscious of them. Her manner seems to say:

"I can't imagine what you are looking at. I do wish you wouldn't stare so. Is there anything wrong about

How Maud Allan Dances Salome

LONDON.—While President Falieres was being entertained at the Gallieball, the officers and crew of the Leon Gambetta, the French warship made their way to the Palace Theatre to attend a matinee given in their honor by special desire of the Admiralty. The "star" turn was, of course, "The Vision of Salome," and Miss Maud Allan's performance was immensely appreciated by the French blue-jackets. Recently Miss Maud Allan had the honor of dancing before the King and Queen.

While Engaged to One Man She Weds Another Sweetheart

NASHVILLE, Tenn., June 21.—Miss Mary Frances Day of Clarksville, representing one of the most prominent families in the State, and cousin of Henry Watson, the editor, was recently married to Harry W. Brennan of Memphis, her second cousin.

Miss Day was to have been married to George T. Wilson of Philadelphia, on June 23, the ceremony to have been most elaborate.

Brennan, an old sweetheart, met her in Nashville recently. They took a drive, and the wedding was planned.

Brennan says he found that Miss Day did not love Wilson and he felt justified in stepping in. He is a prominent civil engineer.

HOW TO BE PRETTY ON LITTLE MONEY

LARGELY BY SKILL AS NEEDLE WOMAN
IS THE SECRET OF A FAIR DUCHESS OF FRANCE

The American woman is one of the prettiest in the world. But her beauty costs her "good money"—to use her own phraseology. The French woman is just as pretty and twice as chic on less than half the money. Perhaps it is counted out for cent if it were found that she gets the same results on a fourth of the amount spent by the American woman. The percentage might even be less. For in matters of economy the French woman reigns supreme. It is not that she is stingy. Her expenditures are positively prodigal, viewed in certain lights. But she understands how to get a franc for a full franc. The American woman spends her dollar. But does she always get a full dollar's worth?

Not Expensive.

When the duchess of Z was in this country not long ago, one asked her how she managed to be always so elegantly attired. "It must cost you a mint of money," ventured a woman more intimate than the rest.

"It does not," said the duchess. "And, indeed, you would be surprised could you know how little my dress really costs me also how little I spend upon my appearance. It is a matter of management with me."

"All French women are taught management. It is part of their training. It makes them quick and smart. They get it in the nursery. The English child in the nursery is taught out of books and the English young woman is still at her books. But the young French woman is taught out of the practical book of experience. She is made to imbibes management from the time she can walk."

Learns Management.

"When the French woman marries she is an adept at management. And, as time rolls along, she becomes still more skillful at it. Particularly is she good at managing her own personal appearance, for beauty is the end and aim of a French woman's life. Without good looks she would consider herself a failure. But she never is a failure. She understands the art of making herself pretty. No matter how poor she may be she is pretty and what we call chic."

"In the springtime the French woman buys herself a hat. It is her Easter hat, and she plans for it as she would plan for any other important event of the year. The Easter hat constitutes one of her main features of dress outlay of the year, and she is careful in her buying."

Seeks Good Material.

"Now, the French woman, buying her spring hat, does not believe that she should buy cheaply. The hat must be a sort that will stand the suns of summer and the snows of winter. It must be an all the year hat; and it must last for several seasons. It will be second best next year and third best the year after. So what does she do?"

"When she selects her hat she pays well. But she gets a hat that is reversible. This may sound queer, but every French woman can tell you what it means."

Hat Lasts Long.

"I have an acquaintance who has not much money. Yet out of her small funds she took enough to buy a hat which in your money would be $10. In French money it means much more. She bought a hat which, for her, cost a fortune. She can get no other for a long time. Yet so well has she selected that she will need none. The hat is a 'moude' one of some curious horsehair material, and around its crown there is a tall band of metallic trimming. At the front are wonderful watermelon plumes; at the back is a marvelous peacock colored ribbon chou. The hat is more than beautiful—it is chic. By turning it, by bending it, by wearing it this way and that way it is always a new hat. The French woman studies this effect when buying a hat, and the saleswoman assists her in it, she does not always wear her hat alike."

Well-Fitting Corset.

"Speaking for the well dressed French woman, I can say that she spends most of her money on hats and corsets. These are her two speaking features of dress. Without a becoming hat, costing obviously some money, she would not regard herself well attired; while the best gown in the world would be a failure were it not worn over a well fitting corset. "If I were to talk about myself I

"MOST BASHFUL MAN"

Flees From Altar 4 Times

He Still Has Another Chance

JANESVILLE, Ill., June 22.—Daniel Mathews, aged 24, the "most bashful man in Illinois," avoided the altar for the fourth time last night. The Rev. J. H. Jones and 150 guests waited for an hour and a half at the church for him to appear and become the husband of Miss Marie Fraser, but Mathews was elsewhere. Later Daniel said he wanted to be married worse than anything on earth, but that he really intended to face the altar, but that something—he does not know what—prevented him from getting there.

Miss Fraser admitted she was willing to give the bashful one another chance. They will attempt to overcome his timidity with a private ceremony.

The first time Mathews promised to go before the minister was two years ago when he was married to Miss Mary Miller at Rosedale, Jersey county. He failed her.

A week later he was again led to the altar.

A QUESTION

Are jumper frocks to be worn this season? If so, would white mohair—which I have on hand—be suitable for one?

ALICE

Your white mohair will make a very pretty jumper frock. Suppose you wear it with just a suggestion of black. Very attractive black with the braid, in combination with a little woven gump of black and white. If you have enough material for a little coat to match, this will give you a pretty and useful afternoon dress.

LONELY, PLEADS WIFE AS AN EXCUSE

SHOT BY FIRST HUSBAND, Must Face DIVORCE by SECOND

PITTSBURGH, June 17.—East End society circles heard with amazement that Mrs. Mary Hurt, wife of Harry A. Hurt, a wealthy promoter, and Franklin Lydick, a clubman and prominently identified with the Carnegie Natural Gas Company, a subsidiary of the Carnegie Steel Company, had been surprised together, at night, by Hurt's husband.

HEART

Tremendous pressure was brought to bear, and the story was suppressed until Mrs. Hurt and Lydick were to have been given hearings before Alderman Louis Alpert on serious charges. The hearings were postponed, and it is probable the charges will not be pressed, although Hurt declares he will bring suit for divorce.

For more than a year, it is said, Hurt has been suspicious. He employed detectives to watch his wife, and late Monday night they sent for him and a constable with warrants. The couple, it is alleged, were together at the home of a friend of Mrs. Hurt when the husband and officers broke into the room. Mrs. Hurt broke down completely and is so unnerved that her friends fear she will attempt suicide.

Mrs. Hurt admitted that she and her husband had not been living happily together, and declared she was so lonely that she was forced to seek other companions.

Mrs. Hurt is a fascinating brunette of twenty-seven years. She was Miss Mary Jones, of Youngstown, O., one of the beauties of the town, and when fifteen years old eloped with and married a business man of Youngstown, two children being born. Eight years ago her husband, accusing her of unfaithfulness, shot her and, thinking her dead, blew out his brains. She came to Pittsburgh and by advertising procured a position as stenographer for Hurt, a prosperous broker. A year later she married him.

Lydick refuses to talk except to say it is untrue he offered her his fortune to Hurt to drop the case.

"CONFUSION TO DR. OSLER!"

SAYS YANAK, AGED 72, FATHER OF TWIN GIRLS

WATERBURY, Conn., June 22.—Then Charles E. Yanak, tall, straight, a live, was seventy-two years old he invited a few friends to drink his health at his farmhouse near Hilltown.

"The doctor's upstairs with my son," Yanak told them. "He says we must be very quiet because"—and he smiled significantly.

A guest has just told Yanak that he was just as young as ever, when the doctor, leaning over the second story banister, called hi minto the hall.

"The doctor held up two fingers like a man ordering 'swifter'."

"What?" gasped Yanak.

"Twins," said the doctor. "Girls, fine, big, healthy babies."

"Good gracious!" The doctor must fly tandem around here," exclaimed Yanak. Then, becoming extolled, he hurried a farm hand to William for a case of champagne. He said his friends drank the wine to the long life and appliness of Mrs. Yanak and the very small Misses Yanak and to the confusion of one Dr. Osler, who recommends that elderly gentlemen be chloroformed to end their uselessness.

Mrs. Yanak, who married some dozen years ago, is forty years old.
